

The Office of the CIO
Learning Technologies Unit
2010-2011

Who Are We?

The Learning Technologies Unit in the College of Education supports the efforts of faculty, students and area K-12 teachers in their efforts to effectively integrate technology into teaching and learning.

What Can We Do for You?

We can help you learn about technologies, develop technology-rich lessons, lend equipment, and assist with implementation of technology-enhanced lessons in your classroom placements. Learning Technologies Specialists can help you with SMART Boards, clicker systems, digital cameras, Flip video cameras, digital microscopes, and many other tools for enhancing teaching and learning.

Where Are We?

For assistance with lessons, course assignments, lesson development, or to learn about software or technology tools that are of interest to you, we can assist you in Room 10 of the Education Building. We are open Monday through Friday from 8:00-5:00. You may walk in; however, we suggest making an appointment to ensure access to a Learning Technologies Specialist. Appointments can be set up by contacting Lynn Burdick at lburdick@illinois.edu or Sarah Jones at hendrix2@illinois.edu.

Note: If you are having trouble with your laptop or have troubleshooting questions, please visit User Services in Room 1 of the Education Building.

What Resources are Available to You?

Many of the resources that are available for you to check out for course assignments or for use in your classroom placements are listed at <http://education.illinois.edu/illinipartnerships/equipment.html>. We also have a license for Discovery Education Streaming. “Discovery Education Streaming is an online video-on-demand teaching service that is correlated to state K-12 curriculum standards and features up to 7,700 full length videos and 77,000 video clips, as well images, audio files, lesson plans, a quiz builder, assignment builder, writing prompts, and online self-paced professional development.” Discovery Communications.
