NEED TIPS ON MOTIVATING YOUR
STUDENT TO THINK TO THE FUTURE?

LOOKING FOR INFORMATION ON COLLEGE READINESS?

“Pathways to Success” is a resource fair focused on helping parents of middle and high school students plan for their child’s future.

Collect information and talk with college admissions, financial aid representatives and career counselors. Get ideas for setting goals and motivating your student to think ahead to a future career.

I-Parents is an exciting University of Illinois collaborative that includes various campus units, local schools, parent-teacher organizations and community groups. I-Parents seeks to improve the lives of area children through collaboration of time and resources in the support and education of parents and families. It strives to build community around and exchange information in response to critical issues important to parents.
